What this is (and is not)

The D'Key Association is a Private Members Association (PMA). It is a voluntary, private membership community governed by private agreement and shared standards. It is not a public authority. It is not a court. It does not provide legal advice.

Membership principles

- Consent-based participation — members join by choice and can exit peacefully.
- Calm governance — clarity, respectful conduct, and process over noise.
- Privacy by default — member details handled with care and minimal exposure.
- Service orientation — education, culture, and practical support where available.

What happens after you submit a request

1. You receive a confirmation that your request was received.
2. We review intent and fit (basic screening for safety and alignment).
3. We email you the membership terms and any onboarding steps.
4. Once accepted, you receive access instructions for member resources (as they roll out).

Member conduct (summary)

- Respectful language and behaviour toward others.
- No harassment, intimidation, or coercive tactics.
- No misrepresentation of the Association as a public authority.
- Members remain responsible for their own decisions and compliance with applicable law.
